NAD+ and NAD Neuro Recover T's and C's

- NAD+ and NAD Neuro Recover must be booked in advance so that the relevant vials and dripping station can be booked for you.
- Payment is made upfront to secure your booking.
- All information given to you prior to beginning your NAD loading phase must be read. This will prepare you adequately for your NAD journey.
- For the 3 day and 5 day NAD loading phase, it is recommended that you begin taking the NAD+ capsules one week before you start dripping to reduce any discomfort.
- Booking must be cancelled 24 hours in advance.
- Once booked and paid, the NAD process is non-refundable. If you choose not to continue with the NAD journey we will issue you with a voucher to be used at the IV Bar you purchased the NAD loading phase at. This voucher can be used to pay for any drips or retail products to the value of the voucher. This voucher cannot be used at any other IV Bar. The voucher can be transferred or gifted to someone else. It cannot be redeemed for cash.
